

Terry Sutton

saltcod@gmail.com
St. John's, NL
689-7969

RECENT WORK

2014

↑

Distance Education, Memorial University of Newfoundland
Instructional Design Specialist

- Developing training and course materials for university courses and client projects
- Providing direct support for faculty using our learning management system
- Developing and administering training plans for rolling out new technologies across the university

Distance Education, Memorial University of Newfoundland
Assistant Instructional Designer

- Developing training materials for faculty members who want to start offering courses online
- Developing websites, knowledge bases, and course materials to house training materials and encourage community building

Infection Prevention + Control Program, Eastern Health
Policy, Planning and Research Analyst

- Designing campaigns and public information initiatives to help prevent in-hospital infections. Validating these campaigns through data analysis
- Designed and developed infectionnet.org—a website for delivering infection-related curriculum to medical professionals and students

Eastern School District
Teacher

- Classroom teacher in grades 7-12. Subject areas include technology and computing, history and math.

2004

↓

FREELANCE WORK

Considerable work developing websites for various clients

Portfolio: <http://waterstreetgm.org/work/>

EDUCATION

B.Arts (History)
B. Education (with Diploma in Technology Education)

SKILLS

- Background in teaching and education
- Strong web development skills
- Graphic design and production of print materials
- Teaching, research, writing, data analysis